Single-use Serviceware Law

- Businesses may not provide customers with single-use serviceware items by default
- Customers can confirm they want items when asked by a business, request items, or select items from a self-service station at the establishment
- Single-use items/utensils include:
 - knives, forks, spoons, chopsticks
 - cocktail picks, splash sticks, stirrers
 - straws
 - condiment packages
 - cold beverage cup lids
- Single-use items must not be packaged together in bundles such that customers cannot select individual items
- This law does not apply to items including:
 - Plates, bowls, or cups or other single-use packaging to contain food or beverages
 - Hot beverage lids
 - Wrappers for takeout items
 - Single-use items provided at medical/care facilities
- Cold beverage lids may only be provided by default at drive-through, large permanent venues for professional sports or music events (minimum capacity of 2,500 customers).
- To reduce waste, we encourage the use of reusable utensils when possible.
